EYP STYLEGUIDE

EUROPEAN YOUTH PARLIAMENT

Foreword

The EYP Styleguide is designed to support all EYP entities in visually communicating the organisation's work.

Within this document, you will find a set of visual guidelines, rules, and best practices aimed at ensuring consistent communication that remains aligned with the EYP's brand identity.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the International Office via communications@eyp.org.

If you are in a media or communications role in the EYP, alongside the Styleguide, please familiarise yourself with the following documents:

- EYP Communication Strategy - covers key target groups and messages of EYP
- EYP Communication Manual - outlines the non-visual aspects important for communicating about EYP
- EYP Accessibility Guidelines - serves as a tool to help make your communication and designs more accessible

LOGO

Different variations of the logo allow for a larger variety of usages in EYP products.

Standard variant

Long variant

Long variant - coloured

Each version is provided in the formats .ai, .eps and .png, in Standard (Square) and Horizontal (Long) Versions:

Coloured
(with optional blue Lettering)

White

Black

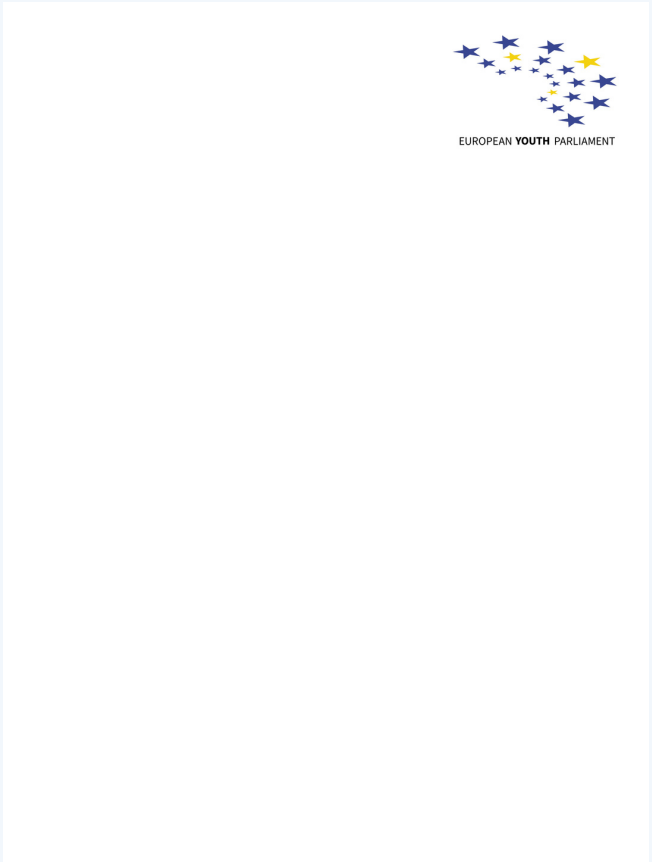

Always make sure there is enough contrast with the logo and its background element.
The white version is only for dark backrgounds, and the coloured/black versions are only for light backgrounds.

The logo should be anchored to a corner or center of the top/bottom edge.

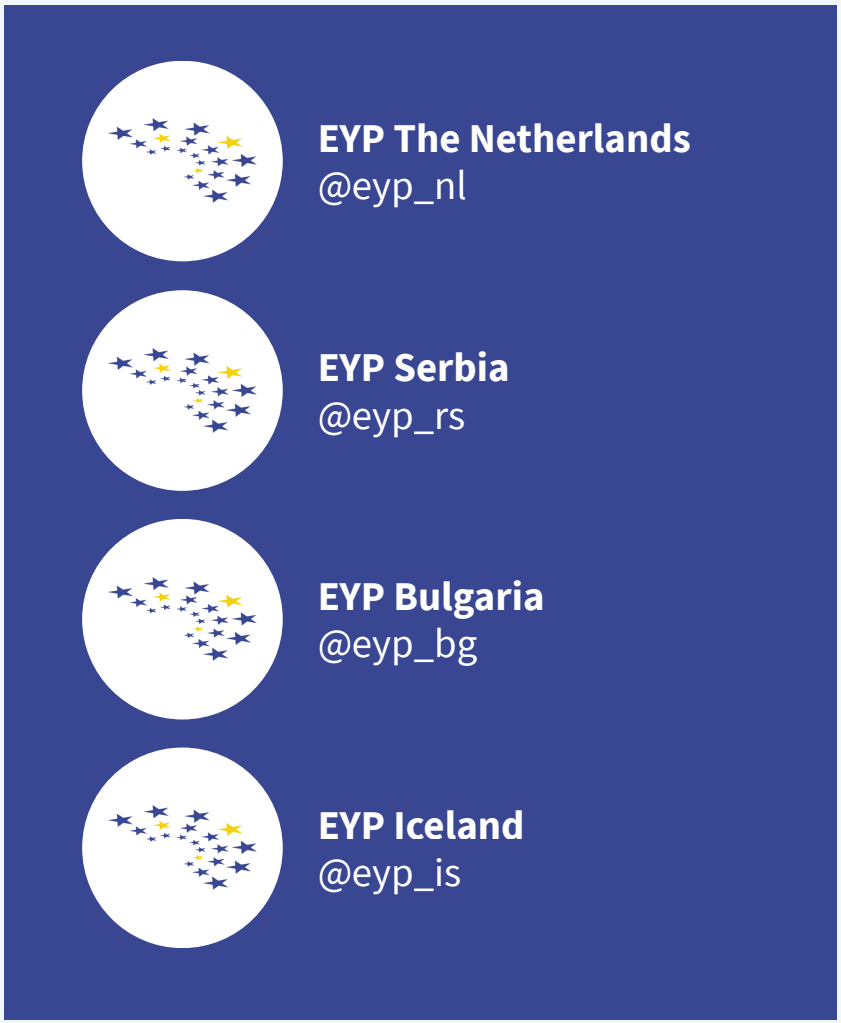

There should be free space between the logo and the edge.

The avatar version of the official EYP logo is solely for social media avatars use.

Every National Committee has its own logo that follows the Policy on Communication.

The following policies apply to the logos of National and Regional Committees:

- The logos of National Committees are distinguished by adding the name of their country in English and the national language. The logos of the National committees can also include “European Youth Parliament” in the national language if necessary with no other deviations;

- In addition, the logos of Regional Committees can be distinguished be adding the name of the region after the name of the country of the respective National Committee with no other deviations;

- Neither the international logo of EYP nor the logo of National or Regional Committees should be combined with other visual elements and must stand on its own;

- The logo files for National Committees are provided by the International Office. Every National Committee gets a package of the following ten versions of the logo in order to have a variety of options.

Each version is provided in the formats .ai, .eps and .png:

Standard (Square) and Horizontal (Longish) Version:

- Coloured
- Coloured with Blue Lettering
- Black
- White

FONT

The corporate font is the Source Sans Pro in three weights: light, regular, and bold.

The Source Sans Pro is used in EYP's official documents on the international level since 1st of January 2016.

It is free of charge available under the SIL OpenFont License.

Download it from the Members Platform.

Please note: All templates provided by the International Office use the TTF version of Source Sans Pro. If you have installed another version of it (like OTF), there might be incompatibility-issues when working with the templates. When working with EYP materials you can simply deactivate (Mac) or hide (Windows) the .otf-Version.

Use the Source Sans Pro regular and light as body text font, and the Source Sans Pro bold as headline font.

Headlines are set in the Source Sans Pro Bold.

Body texts are set in the Source Sans Pro Regular. Iberunt que vit, cum et licatum ut molor rehendae. Alternative Fonts

The font family of Source Sans Pro includes Latin, Cyrilic, and Greek scripts. For others, we recommend using the font Noto Sans instead.

USE OF PICTURES AND VIDEOS

The International Office provides EYP stock photography free to use for all National Committees on Flickr. Find out more in the EYP Picture Stock Guidelines.

Do show pictures and videos of:

- Young People
- Faces, ideally smiling and/or passionate
- Teambuilding activities, especially shots taken mid-action
- Committee Work discussions
- Passionate speaking poses
- Diversity, colours, flags

Do NOT show pictures and videos of:

- People sleeping or being visibly tired
- Alcohol or drunk people
- Cigarettes, vapes, e-cigarettes, nicotine pouches and any similar nicotine products, or people smoking
- Highlighting luxury brands
- Blindfolded games or teambuilding activities that might seem inappropriate or cultist in pictures

EVENT BRANDING GUIDELINES

In the EYP event logo format, each logo consists of an icon, a wordmark, and the long EYP Logo. Margins between these three elements must remain the same in different variants of the logo.

If you are adding the event logo as a watermark to pictures when posting, it is important to store copies of the pictures watermark-free. This is to ensure that your pictures continue to be useful for communications materials long after the event.

Session logo examples:

You may use this page as an example to determine the correct margins between the icon, text, and EYP logo. Since icon sizes and shapes may vary, it's proportions to the text and EYP logo elements can be approximate and determined by the designer.

Example of a standard session logo

Example of a longish session logo

The EYP Logo may only be removed from the session logo format if the event logo is too small for it to be readable. In this case, the EYP logo must be added separately elsewhere.

A logotable should begin with an “Initiated by:” section, including the Schwarzkopf Foundation, the International EYP Logo, the National Committee Logo, and the following sentence: “The Schwarzkopf Foundation is the international umbrella organisation of the European Youth Parliament (EYP), EYP [insert country name] is a National Committee in the EYP Network.”

Following the “Initiated by:” section, other sections can be created based on partner arrangements within each event. These can include “Sponsored by:”, “Supported by:”, “In Partnership with:”, “With the Patronage of:”, etc.

For more information on logotable arrangements and templates you can use, see the “logotable” template on the Members Platform.
